Absentee Bidding By Fax or Email

Absentee bidding has been created at Moe's Auctioneering Service to provide more value added service. If you want to have the opportunity to bid on some items in this sale you can do so by absentee bid. We will have someone bid for you. You will be registered with a buyers card at our sale. It is important to note that all bidding on any given item will start from the floor or crowd. All items will be clearly marked at the auctions by means of a red sticker. All items having absentee bids will be announced before bidding starts on that item. Then we will bid along until we purchase the item or reach your maximum bid. The only requirement by you is to give us your maximum bid.
